

Gary Kohl

Gillett, WI

The E-Rate program has been absolutely instrumental in improving teaching and learning in our district. As we move toward digital learning it is more important than ever that we have access to reliable broadband services .This is a necessary investment in the future of our children and our nation.